A Recovery Coach is an individual with lived-experience and specialized training that provides recovery support services to individuals who are seeing to initiate and/or maintain their own recovery.

What is Recovery Coaching?

A Recovery Coach is an individual with lived-experience and specialized training that provides recovery support services to individuals who are seeing to initiate and/or maintain their own recovery.

Supported Access to Treatment
Peer-to-Peer Recovery Support Services
Recovery that meets you where you are

If you or someone you love is ready to explore substance use disorder treatment options, we can help!

WWW.PEERRECOVERYSUPPORTS.COM